

The Best Promotional Tool is the Appaloosa himself

Known for being a do-everything "usin' horse," the blood-breed Appaloosa stands out amidst horses of other breeds...not just for his eye-catching color, but for his versatiliby, ability, and his obvious family-oriented disposition. He can go from taking Mom around the jump course to steadfastly carrying the youngest child in lead-line. Then he gets to play in his speed-&-action or cattle classes.... And all in the same day.
